

To-day's ESSEX is the finest ever built. It is the smoothest, most reliable ESSEX ever built. It is the best looking, most comfortably riding ESSEX ever built. And the price, because of volume, is the lowest at which ESSEX ever sold. Its overwhelming public acceptance confirms by actual sales supremacy the outstanding leadership of ESSEX value. Never was that position so clear and so rightly deserved as to-day.

THE FIRST DAY. Hong Kong's Annual Race Carnival.

JOCKEY INJURED.

Derby Favourite Wins Chief Event.

Hong Kong's great annual racing carnival began to-day, and although the weather was not ideal, the event proved very enjoyable. Race No. 7, the Garrison Cup, was marred by an unfortunate accident. Mr. D. B. Peat, riding Smoke Ball, being heavily thrown and kicked. He is now in hospital with rather serious injuries.

The chief event of the day was the Trial Stakes, won by Mr. L. Dunbar's Elliot Bay, a favourite for to-morrow's Derby.

The present meeting is notable as the first to have Chinese owners, and it is a happy coincidence that the first place in the fourth race fell to Mr. Ho Kom-tong.

Perhaps the smallest crowd for years was in attendance both inside the enclosures and in the ring when the first bell rang.

"Less even than for an extra meeting"—that was the opinion of an old race-goer, but the attendance rapidly increased.

Raincoats were the order and a few even carried umbrellas. But the weather proved fine for the rest of the day.

Arrangements in the members' enclosure and in the public stand were much the same as in previous years. Here and there was a new board for the better convenience of punters.

Rain during the week-end had made the course a bit sticky. Interest centred in the debut of the griffins in Mr. L. Dunbar's stable as these ponies were considered favourites for to-morrow's Derby.

Bengal, the Tientsin filly purchased by Sir Victor Sassoon ("Mr. Eve"), was another pony that was eagerly watched on account of his reputation.

Several Shanghai gentlemen riders were in attendance. Some excellent sport is looked forward to for the remainder of the week.

Gaily decorated, the private stands formed a pretty background, making up for the colours hidden from view by the ladies' mackintoshes.

The band of the 2nd Batt., King's Own Scottish Borderers, discoursed music at intervals.

On the highway the Traffic Police made well-nigh perfect arrangements, assisted by the Flying Squad (a reserve of volunteers), out for the first time in "pukka" uniform, with red armlets.

A Naval patrol comprising blue-jackets and marines was on duty as were men from the St. John Ambulance Brigade and the Fire Brigade.

H.E. the Governor (Sir Cecil Clementi) and Lady Clementi arrived before the third race and were received by the Stewards. By then the attendance had already reached normal.

In the fourth race Mr. Ho Kom-tong took part as an owner, this being the first time a Chinese has so appeared in Hong Kong. Through a happy coincidence his pony Kom Tong Hall won the race, a result that was received with great applause.

It was decided to-day that the 1st race after the interval during the Race Meeting should be at 3 p.m. instead of at 2.40 p.m. as at first arranged. This will apply throughout the four days.

Bengal proved much too good for Saligia and will start favourite for the Champions unless the griffins continue to return outstanding times to-morrow.

At the moment of writing, Mr. Dunbar's Chesapeake Bay and Elliot Bay had won their respective races with comparative ease and the stable is now a moral certainty for the big race to-morrow.

OUR GIRL GUIDES.RALLY AT HEADQUARTERS
HOUSE.*STRIKING DEMONSTRATION.

The Hong Kong and Kowloon Girl Guide Association Rally, held in the grounds of Headquarters House on Saturday afternoon (by kind permission of H.E. Major-General
C. C. Luard, C.M.G., D.S.O., and Mrs. Luard), attracted a large number of members of the Association and their friends. The threatening weather of the earlier hours of the day brightened up at the appointed hour for the function.

The Association Colours were ceremoniously "marched on" at 2.45, Lady Clementi, M.B.E. (President of the Association) who was accompanied by Mrs. W. T.
Southern (Colonial Commissioner),
Mrs. Remington (District Commissioner) and other officers, arriving promptly at 3 p.m.

Guide and Brownie Work.
A most interesting display of Girl Guide and Brownie work was then gone through. Mrs. Remington directing operations. The display took the form of the letters
"G.U.I.D.E." Various items being presented by both Guides and Brownies.

The chief item was one depicting the history of the movement, the members of the various units marching past bearing cards upon which appeared words corresponding to Mrs. Remington's remarks.

Mrs. Remington said:—
This afternoon we are endeavouring to illustrate to you what we mean by the word "Guide."
First we have the letter "G," which stands for the "Growth" of the movement. In 1910, Sir Robert Baden Powell found that girls were imitating the Boy Scouts, and as a result, in co-operation with his sister, he organised a similar movement for girls. In 1915, a junior branch was found necessary and the Brownies were initiated. In 1917, Cadets and Rangers were started. In 1918, Lady Baden
Powell was elected Chief Guide.

In 1919, two new branches were started, Sea Guides and Post Guides, the latter for cripples. In 1920, Princess Mary consented to become President. In 1921, Girl Guides were started in Hong Kong.

In 1922, "Foxlease" a house in the New Forest, Hampshire, England,
was presented to the movement,
and endowed by Princess Mary as a training centre for Girl Guides all over the world. In 1923, the Association was granted a Royal Charter. In 1924, the "All World" Camp was held at "Foxlease," when 1,100 Guides met, representing over fifty countries. There are now Guides in sixty countries as the Brownies and others will show you.

The total number of Guides and Brownies in the world is now
613,809. Following the letter "G," we have "U" which stands for "Usefulness," then the letter "I"
denoting "Intelligence."

Then followed an imaginary picnic, a camp fire being erected in the centre of the open space.

Practical Demonstration.
Continuing, Mrs. Remington said:—

Imagine the 1st and 2nd Kowloon Companies having a picnic in the New Territory. Two Guides have gone ahead to lay a track, and in climbing a tree in order to hide a message, one of them slips and in falling fractures her leg and injures her forehead. Her companion immediately signals to the rest of the party for help and stretcher bearers hasten to the scene of the accident to render

"First Aid." Two Guides are despatched to the nearest telephone which happens to be at the Golf Club at Fanling. The Fire Station is communicated with a request made for the immediate despatch of a doctor and ambulance. In the meantime the casualty is carried down to the Camp, given a hot drink, and kept warm pending their arrival.

We now come to the letter "D" which stands for "Development by means of Physical Training and Games, as will be depicted by the 1st Hong Kong Company.

The last letter "E" represents "Enjoyment," and each Brownie Pack will show you their favourite singing game, following which the Guides, round their camp fire, will give a short "Sing-song."

A programme of singing followed, the young Brownies joining in most heartily, under the leadership of the elder girls.

Mrs. Remington then called upon Lady Clementi to present the "Prince of Wales's Banner" to this year's winners—the "Kowloon British School Company."

Lady Clementi's Address.
Addressing the gathering, Lady Clementi said:—

"On behalf of the Hong Kong and Kowloon Girl Guides Association I want to thank the audience for their kind appreciation of our work. You came here this afternoon to be pleased and we came here to do our best to please you. I think we can claim to have demonstrated something of the growth of the movement in Hong Kong, and I am glad to say that two new Companies are here to-day for the first time. On behalf of the Association we extend to them both a very hearty welcome."

"I hope we have demonstrated something of the spirit of the movement also. I have seen it with the Tamil sari girl in her silken robes; with the Ceylonese girl; and with our Chinese girls who are here with us this afternoon. But, believe me, the spirit of the movement is the same everywhere."

"In conclusion, I wish to ask you to join me in three cheers for Miss Trotter and Miss Wankley who have worked so hard for the movement and who, sadly, are leaving us for Home on Saturday."

Mrs. Southern's Thanks.
Mrs. Southern said:—"I wish, on behalf of the Association, to tender our most grateful thanks to General and Mrs. Luard for so kindly lending us their garden. I am sure that Mrs. Luard did not realise what it would mean when she gave her consent, but she knew that we were Guides and that we could be trusted. She is one of us, for she is a member of our local Committee."

Lady Clementi has referred to the widespread growth of the movement. I am pleased to see here this afternoon British, Indian, Japanese, Chinese, Ceylonese and Australian Guides. This will let you have some idea of the extent of the movement.

Three hearty cheers for Lady Clementi brought the proceedings to a close.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH.ANNUAL MEETING HELD YESTERDAY.

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Peter's Church, West Point, was held at the Sailors' Home following the Missa Cantata yesterday morning, the Rev. V. H. Copley Moyle, M.A. (Oxon.) Colonial Chaplain, presiding. In the course of an interesting annual report, Mr. George S. Zimmern, the Honorary Secretary, referred to the extensive repairs that had been carried through during the course of the period under review. The cost had been heavy—over $1,500 having been spent—but, thanks to the money raised by socials, concerts and recitals, the debt had been wiped out. Mr. Zimmern referred eulogistically to the success of the Ladies' Guild and the recently formed St. Peter's Church Young Men's Club, the latter organisation now having a membership of over 200. Reference was also made to the recent visit of the Bishop of London, and to that of Mr. T. Z. Koo earlier in the year, both of which had been an inspiration to all members of the congregation. The Accounts. Mr. H. A. Allen, the Honorary Treasurer presented the accounts for the year. These showed that a balance of $566 had been brought forward from 1925. The accounts were duly adopted. Elections of Officials. After a ballot, the following lay members were elected for the Church Council, it having been decided to increase the membership from 6 to 8. Miss R. Mow Fung, Mr. H. A. Allen, Mr. A. L. Quarrel, Mr. A. W. Miller, Dr. H. G. Earle, M.A., Ch.B., Mr. G. S. Zimmern, Miss Pope and Miss Yung. Mr. G. S. Zimmern was re-elected Hon. Secretary. Dr. Earle and Miss B. Yung were appointed representatives from St. Peter's to the Victoria Diocesan Association.

A New Site.

The Rev. N. V. Halward, on behalf of the Bishop of Victoria, explained that in view of the decision to pull down St. Peter's Church, it had found necessary to select another site for the new Church.

The Government having made that request visits had been made to Happy Valley for this purpose. The matter would later be discussed with the Director of Public Works, but it was for the congregation of St. Peter's to voice their views as to which site they would like.

Five prospective sites had been selected, and one of them could be chosen.

The sites selected are:—
1.—Morrison Hill Road.
2.—Caroline Hill Road.
3.—Near the Dragon Motor Garage.
4.—Near the Government Quarters near the Dragon Motor Garage.
5.—On some rising ground opposite the Jewish Cemetery.

It was decided that the new Church Council of St. Peter's should visit the site, and recommend which should be chosen.

HOME RUGGER.

London, Feb. 26. At Twickenham, the rugger team selected from the Dominions University men defeated a combined Oxford and Cambridge team by eight points to six.—Reuter.

COLOMBO STRIKE.

Harbour Situation Growing Worse.

Colombo, Feb. 26. The harbour strike is becoming worse. A labour leader has threatened to call out the warehouse coolies.—Reuter.

V. D. A.ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING NEXT WEEK.

The annual meeting of the Victoria Diocesan Association is to be held at the Helena May Institute, at 5.30 p.m., on Monday, March 7, and it is earnestly hoped that members will do their utmost to attend this meeting.

The meeting will open with prayer, following which the balance sheet for 1926 will be presented. In connection with this, the Hon. Treasurer, David Sassoon & Co., would be grateful if all outstanding subscriptions could be paid in as soon as possible. The annual subscription is $2, but it is suggested that members might find it more convenient to subscribe for two or three years in advance. The Life Membership Fee is $50.

The next business on the agenda will be the presentation of the new constitution for adoption, and then a report of the year's work will be made. The Bishop of Victoria (the Right Rev. C. R. Duppuy) will give an address, and there will also be an address by the Rev. T. B. Woods.

Drawing of the R.A.O.B. Cash Sweep will take place at the Club, Duddell Street this evening at six o'clock.

RUSSIA'S REPLY.

MOSCOW AGAIN EVADES
ISSUE.

SOVIET PRESS DEFENDED.

Moscow, Feb. 27.

The Soviet reply to the British Note says the Note states the quite unquestionable fact of the unsatisfactory character of the relations of the Soviet and Great Britain. It cites the agreement signed by the Soviet in 1923, whereby the Soviet undertook not to support, with funds, or in any other way, persons, bodies or agencies whose aim is to spread discontent or foment rebellion in any part of the British Empire.

The reply declares that during the three and a half years since the signing of the agreement, the British Government repeatedly reproached the Soviet for alleged infringements of the agreement. Violating the agreement signed by Lord Curzon in 1923, whereby Britain undertook immediately to inform the Soviet of the supposed infringement, and her obligations not to allow cases to accumulate without making charges, the British Government, preferred to make general and wholesale reproaches, save in the instance of the so-called "Zinovieff letter," during the general election in Britain in 1924.

The "Zinovieff letter" subsequently proved to be a forgery. Thus, the only definite charge was based on a forged document, while none of those who had misinformed the British Government were punished, though the letter at one time strained Anglo-Russian relations to the breaking point.

Arbitration Declined.

The fact that Britain declined to accept the Russian proposals to submit to arbitration the question of responsibility regarding the international Communist organizations could only be taken as a withdrawal of the accusations against the Soviet.

The reply points out that there have been no agreements limiting freedom of speech and of the Press within the borders of either country. To bring published verbal utterances made within Soviet Russia into the scope of the 1923 agreement is an arbitrary extension of the limits of the agreement.

The Soviet note characterises as delusions the constant references by politicians and members of the British Government to the alleged omnipresence and omnipotence of so-called Soviet agents. It deplores the unsatisfactory conditions of Anglo-Soviet relations, but believes that explanations cannot be made by means of mutual accusations in the Press.

The Note alleges that the British Government in its communications with the Soviet consciously infringes upon the usual international forms and customs even of elementary decency and says the British Government avoids settlement of mutual claims and talks to the Soviet in a threatening tone.

The Note cites the speeches of Lord Birkenhead, Mr. Winston Churchill and other British statesmen in regards to Russia. It refers to attacks on the Soviet representatives in London and says that the BIRTH.

PATERSON.—On February 25,
1927, at 351, The Peak, Hong Kong, to Mr. & Mrs. J. J.
PATERSON, a daughter.

Hong Kong, Monday, Feb. 28, 1927.

BANKING AND TRADE.

The preponderating position of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation is accountable for the annual meeting of shareholders rightly being regarded as the most outstanding event
in the banking and commercial history of the Colony each year.
The views of its Chairman on current topics affecting trade in relation to China are keenly anticipated by all having interests, directly or indirectly, in the development of commerce. And there can be very few, indeed, exempt from this category.

It was inevitable that reference should be made at Saturday's meeting by the Hon. Mr. D. G. M.
Bernard, the Chairman, to the political upheaval in China, to the limited effect of the raising of the boycott in Canton, and to the anti-British movement throughout the country. The Chinese themselves are not primarily blamed for the existing situation. As Mr. Bernard pertinently pointed out, the British
"for eighteen months past have
been made the subject of a peculiar and intensely bitter attack,
supported by boundless misrepresentation and calumny, for which
there can be no other explanation
than that it is the work of political instigators not concerned with
the real, or even the imaginary,

interests of China, but solely bent on doing harm to Great Britain."
All will re-echo to the full the hope cherished by the Chairman of the Bank that "the very extravagance of the campaign will defeat its own ends, when the good sense of the Chinese people has a chance to re-assert itself."

This note of optimism — for such it can be safely characterised—was supported by the seconder of the Chairman's speech, Mr. T. E. Pearce, who believes that in due time the good sense of the Chinese people will prevail when they will realise that Great Britain is animated by no other than the friendliest of feelings in her desire to see a united country working in the best interests of the country. He is also sanguine enough to believe that it will not be long before this friendly feeling will be reciprocated and an appreciation of British fair play and straightforwardness manifested.

It is gratifying to find such feelings of optimism prevalent at the annual meeting of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, whose ramifications extend throughout the whole of the Far East, and beyond. It is in an unrivalled position to gauge the real position and to base its views on facts not within the ken of the man in the street. Moreover, even were events, to prove that such optimism is slightly exaggerated—which, of course, we hope not—it is still all to the good that such a feeling should be expressed by sober business men whose outlook on the world is influenced solely by the trend of British trade.

Race Week.

Once more the big race meeting
is here, and Hong Kong, forgetting its troubles for the nonce, will plunge into the joys of the Turf. The moralists may condemn racing because it encourages gaming, but for all that the fact remains that gaming is one of our deepest instincts. In the Homeland, although they make betting pay its share to the national revenue, they do not factually blame it for the existing situation. As Mr. Bernard pertinently pointed out, the British
"for eighteen months past have
been made the subject of a pecu-
liar and intensely bitter attack,
supported by boundless misrep-
resentation and calumny, for which
there can be no other explanation
than that it is the work of political instigators not concerned with
the real, or even the imaginary,

ment, the most delicious suspense. Yet further charm, before the Goddess of Chance, we are all equal, since only one ticket can win the cash sweep's largest prize, and that one ticket may be bought by the man who "invests" $100. But there is one word of warning to add. Set a limit to the number of bets to be made and thus ensure that a run of a bad luck will not cost more than a known sum. If this advice is followed, the moralists are answered—completely and finally—for betting then becomes a harmless pleasure. If it is ignored, well, hardship might easily result.
That many will ignore it does not,
however, give the moralists much argument. You cannot suppress the gaming instinct, and if you take away the races, other ways to have a flutter will be found, in spite of all the reproof and caution in the world.

CORRESPONDENCE.

ENTERTAINMENTS FOR SERVICE MEN.

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.") Sir,—In view of the great increase of the number of Service Men expected in the Colony it will be necessary to make provision for their entertainment.

The Y. M. C. A. would like to have the co-operation of all who are interested in this subject, in order that plans may now be made.
Would secretaries of Concert Parties kindly communicate with me as soon as possible?

It is suggested that an Entertainment Committee be formed to arrange concerts etc. in the Naval and Military Y. M. C. A.'s and other places which may be available for the Service Men. This Committee could render splendid service and it is hoped that enthusiastic support will be given to it.—Yours, etc.,

JOHN H. HUNT.

The honeymoon is being spent at Repulse Bay, and later Mr. and Mrs. Remedios will make their home in Shanghai.

The world-renowned Danish Surgeon, Professor Thorold Roysing, has died at the age of 64. He performed in the course of his career about 30,000 operations, often in extremely difficult cases after his colleagues had decided not to act. He was an honorary member of the Association of Surgeons of Great Britain and Ireland and of the Medical-Chirurgical Society of Edinburgh, as well as a valued corresponding member of many other scientific societies in Europe and America. He also had political interests, and was Minister of Public Instruction in the Liebeck Cabinet in 1920.

When the King reached London recently he was wearing the bunch of Sandringham violets which one has come to associate with his Majesty during his winter visits to Norfolk, observes a gossip writer in a Home paper. On his departure from London in December his butlerhouse was his other special fancy, a white carnation. The variety he wears most frequently is White Pearl, a bloom of substance and sweet perfume which in appearance at a little distance is mistaken often for a gardenia. To keep his buttonholes in position without the use of a pin, which in time disfigures that cloth, the King has a small strip of elastic sewn beneath the lapel of his coat, just below the opening made for the button, in the loop of which the stem of his flower rests and is gripped. Flowers must be fragrant by please his Majesty. Typical of this preference is his regard for the sweet-smelling old Cherry Pie, the heliotrope of winter greenhouses and summer beds, of which in their season many pots shed their perfume in the royal conservatories.

KOWLOON C.C.'S LEAGUE VICTORY.

SATURDAY'S CRICKET.

Kowloon C.C. made amends on Saturday in the division I of the Cricket League, for their defeat last Thursday at the hands of the 2nd/K.O.S.B. Regt.

The leaders travelled to Sookumpoo and soundly defeated the Indian R.C.

As the Royal Navy also won (from the Chinese R.C.), they go up to second place—2 points behind Kowloon.

Civil Service draw with the Borderers and are practically out of the running.

Each club has to play ten fixtures and the appended table tells the rest. Kowloon and the Navy each can get 6 points from their two remaining fixtures, but the issue is still held up owing to a number being behind with their games.

The Juniors.

The only junior division fixture arranged to be played on Saturday, between Kowloon C.C. 2nd XI and the Club de Recreio, has been put off till to-day, the reason being that about half of the members of the Portuguese team are away in Macao where they are engaging the neighbouring Colony at hockey.

The junior division table remains unchanged, with the Indian R.C. 2nd XI occupying first place. The Indians have only one more match to play, this being against Civil Service 2nd XI, and a draw will give them pride of place.

League I.

INDIANS v. KOWLOON.

Declaring with 175 runs for 9 wickets, Kowloon C.C. dismissed Indian R.C. (the home team) for 45 and thus won by 130 runs.

FASHIONS AND FANCIES

Perfumes That Enhance the Personality.

There is always something new in the life of a screen star. And now the newest method of self-expression is obtained through the use of oriental perfumes.

Individuality is always to be desired by women who would achieve smartness and distinction. Clothes for many years, have not been selected because they are a part of the mode for the season, but because they help to express the wearer's personality. And so it is with all the little things that go toward creating a perfect ensemble. And perfume is a very vital part of the feminine list of things that add much to her charm and personality.

In Hollywood, where screen stars live and move and have their being, there lives a Hindu who understands much about feminine personality. And this Sirdar Bhogwan Ekar Singh has taught charming femininity how best to express herself through the art of wearing perfumes. He studies each seeker for perfumes carefully and searchingly before mixing his bizarre spices for them. And he teaches them the essential methods of selecting and wearing perfumes. He believes that perfumes should be placed upon the skin and not on the clothing. Dashing perfume on the blouse, the handkerchief, the fur or floral spray, is, according to this Hindu, all wrong. Likewise should the atomizer be abandoned and perfume should never, never be dabbed on with the stopper of the bottle!

To obtain the best results, perfumes should be gently rubbed into the skin and should issue forth as a natural and fragrant odour of nature.

Perfumes should be selected to suit each personality, and the Hindu has created special perfumes for the stars who visit him. For Corinne Griffith, who is seen in First National's "Purple and the Lilies," he has selected "Mada Joseka," which means Mixture of Love. It is a heavy perfume and carries with it the memory of happy times. Alva White, in her First National film, uses her specially created perfume, Turkish Keora. Keora is the great lily plant of India.

Anna P. Nilsson, whose blonde loveliness is seen in First National's "Easy Pickings," wears a perfume of five blended flowers with sandalwood as a base, for she is a purely Nordic type in appearance, but has a dash of oriental temperament, according to the Sirdar.

Voluptuous women, with full mouths, large brown eyes and lithe figures should depend upon the Lotus for added charms, while a strange perfume which the Hindu calls Patchouly, and which has no English name, should be worn by auburn haired women, blondes and those with light brown hair. It is mild, but has a trace of spices.

An important thing to remember according to this authority upon perfumes is, that blonde girls with thin lips, large eyes and small noses should wear light perfumes.

Brunettes with vivid colouring should wear perfumes with three parts alcohol to one part oil so that it is heavy. Attar of Roses is recommended.

Titian haired women should blend flowers with spices, varying the percentage according to the temperament.

Phlegmatic women need spicy odours to enhance their charms.

And so it is in these days of expressing individuality, that perfumes play an important role. The woman who does not match her personality with perfume is lacking in chic and charm.

quired to hold umbrellas over the heads of the Greek maidens at the great festival of Panathene?

Ben Jonson mentions the umbrella in a comedy produced in 1616; indeed, they seem to have been so important even then that remarks, gay and otherwise, concerning them were often made to fall from the lips of actors. In Beaumont and Fletcher's "Rule a Wife and have a Wife," the umbrella is made to play "Trivia."

Varieties in Feather and Silk.

We gather from the writings of Drayton, that the umbrella of that period was composed of feathers, imitating the plumage of water-birds. There has been a suggestion amongst those who rule the fashions that one might do worse than revert to that vogue, which is not surprising now that feathers are made to play such a large part in the making of flowers and also in the trimming of gowns.

In the days of Queen Anne the umbrella was in common use, but only by women; indeed, the Eighteenth Century was half-over before it was used by both sexes in England. John Macdonald, a footman, who was advanced enough to leave his own memoirs, appeared in London in 1770 with a silk umbrella he had brought from Spain, and tells how he was hailed with the cry—"Frenchman, why don't you get a coach?"

There was a period when umbrellas were kept at coffee-houses for the use of young gentlemen at night. In the "Female Tatler" for Dec. 12, 1709, there can be found the following: "The young gentlemen belonging to the Custom House, in fear of rain, borrowed an umbrella from Will's Coffee-house in Cornhill."

It is from such history as this that our umbrella has come down to us through the ages. It has come through many stages; through glory and renown, through scorn and disrepute.

SUGGESTIONS FOR SOLVING CROSS-WORD PUZZLES
Start out by filling in the words of which you feel reasonably sure. These will give you a clue to other words crossing them, and they in turn will give you a clue to still others. A letter belongs in each white space; words starting at the numbered squares and running either horizontally or vertically or both.

(The solution of the above cross-word puzzle will appear in to-morrow's issue along with a new cross-word puzzle.)

AGREED FASHIONS.

The heads of big stores and manufacturers may meet in Bradford to discuss the trend of feminine fashion if the suggestions of Mr. Arthur Hett, president of the Bradford Textile Society, are acted upon.

Bradford manufacturers suffer heavy losses by a change in women's fashion, which means that certain cloths are left on their hands.

"We need the collaboration of these people," said Mr. Hett, "and I would suggest that a committee should be formed of fashion experts—representatives of the big stores and the producers of the cloth. The retail distributors have already been met. This is carrying the idea a little further."

THE WAY THE WORLD WAGS.

Sir Thomas Colpitts Granger, county court judge of Greenwich, Woolwich, and Southwark since 1911, has died, aged 74.

Building trade operative in thirteen towns throughout the kingdom will receive higher wages by an agreement of the National Joint Council of the industry.

Sir Alfred Seale Haslam, Mayor of Derby in 1890-91 and of Newcastle-under-Lyme in 1901-4, and M.P. for Newcastle-under-Lyme from 1900 to 1906, passed away suddenly in a London hotel. He was 82 years of age.

Roland Kenneth Subert, aged 17, who recently prevented six motor bandits from carrying off booty which they had removed from a Stoke Newington clothing factory, was presented at a police concert with a gold watch, a cheque for £25, and a silver cigarette-case.

Before Mr. Justice Eve the hearing was commenced of an action in which a member of the National Amalgamated Union of Shop Assistants, Warehousemen, and Clerks complains that payments by way of affiliation fees to the Trades Union Congress are illegal.

A resolution was adopted by the English Church Union expressing the opinion that the admission to the pulpits of the Church of Non-conformists and other unlicensed preachers was contrary to Church order and justly gave offence to Church people.

According to a report of an inquiry held under the auspices of the Ministry of Health, no scientific value attaches to assertions, supported merely by the vague pseudo-statistical evidence which is customarily cited, respecting the roles of certain articles of common consumption in the genesis of cancer.

A tribute was paid by the representative of the London Power Company at the inquest on the five men who were killed in Deptford Dry Dock disaster to the heroic gallantry of the men who went to the rescue of their comrades. So far as could be seen, Mr. Waller Frampton, for the Foundation Company, said, no possible precaution against danger had been omitted.

At a meeting of the Miners' Federation it was stated that the nomination of Mr. A. J. Cook as a representative of the Mineral Transport Standing Committee had been rejected by the Government, who desired that the federation should submit two or three names from which a selection would be made. A decision to adhere to the nomination of the secretary was reached unanimously.

Machinery for the preservation of peace in industry, Mr. Frank Hodges urged in a speech to the London Business Club, must provide for increasing representation on the wider and more executive side of business on the part of workmen who were an integral and indisputable part of the business. Employers should do all they could to foster the trade unions, which should be fully and properly recognised down to the works branches and up to the district and national organisations.

A settlement was announced of the action in the Probate Division in which both plaintiff and defendant claimed to have been the wife according to Mohammedan law of the late Abdul Majid Belshah, of Agnes Road, Acton Vale, teacher of Oriental languages. As each party in the action was ready to recognise the regularity of the marriage of the other, the President said, that would give them an interest in the estate of Mr. Belshah, and would entitle the children of each marriage to an interest in the estate.

Supporting the objects of a conference for the revival of diocesan synods, the Bishop of St. Albans (Dr. Furse) wrote that the diocesan bishop was never meant to be an autocrat, but should act in counsel with his clergy and, "as far as possible, with the assent of the laity." So accustomed were we to looking upon bishops as queer creatures whose ways were beyond understanding, that it was quite a shock to a great many steady-going clergy to be told that there was no reason why they should not speak their minds freely in synod or conference, even in opposition to the bishop.

A steady increase in the use of cheques is reported by the Bankers' Clearing House. Last year the sum raised by means of the two-penny stamp duty was £3,182,000, compared with £2,973,000 in 1925 and £2,794,000 in 1924.

Expressing unswerving faith in the British character the King, in acknowledging the New Year's message from the citizens of London, states that he heartily shares the belief that, with united efforts and a spirit of mutual confidence and goodwill in our widespread industries, we shall see a gradual but sure restoration of the trade and commerce of our country.

Mr. Ernest Bevin, general secretary of the Transport and General Workers' Union, speaking at a union dinner, declared that he still believed that they had been right in taking their part in the General Strike. He had no faith in further conferences for the purpose of securing an industrial truce. No trade union leader could tie his men for five years.

"MENS SANA IN CORPORE SANO"

What It Really Means.

Broadly speaking, health is determined by a sane mind in a sound body. Translated into simpler terms, this means right thinking and right living. To imagine that one may live as he pleases, and thereafter look to medicine to counteract neglect and abuse of the system, is fatuous. Did the average person but realise how soundness of the blood, spells soundness of the body and soundness of mind, many common maladies would be banished forever. It is in the bloodstream that appear, eventually, the vital ingredients derived from nourishment, modified by numerous processes into the required form.

Present-day modes of living tend to bring about an unsound condition of the blood and nerves. There is no corrective more efficient when such conditions are present than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the widely known blood and nerve tonic, which, being the formula of a highly qualified and skilled physician, are based upon accurate scientific conclusions. As a remedy for anaemia, nervous debility, digestive anaemia, rheumatism, as well as for those irregularities of health which afflict women, these Pills stand pre-eminent. Your chemist sells them, or post free, $1.50 per bottle, $5.00 for 6 bottles, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kingsway Road, Shanghai.

A golfer playing on a course on common land was not responsible, Judge Alan Macpherson decided at Cheltenham County Court, for damage done to a motor-car on the common by a sliced ball.

Over £8,000,000 is to be spent by the Southern Railway upon schemes of electrification this year. A considerable amount of work will be found for British workmen, as the company hopes to place every contract with a British firm.

Members of the Coats family have presented Jan Vermeer's picture, "Christ with Martha and Mary," the central feature of the late Mr. W. A. Coats's collection, to the National Gallery, Edinburgh. Without doubt, Mr. R. R. Tatlock states, this is the finest Vermeer in the country.

Major-General Sir Frederick Sykes, M.P., who was the guest of the Authors' Club, contended that the solution of the London transport problem was to be found in common financial interest, common management, and independent control of the various services. Tramways, he said, were indispensable for the movement of morning and evening loads along the main arteries.

Mr. A. J. Cook, interviewed on his return from Russia, said that his policy for the New Year was to reorganise the Miners' Federation, with a view to making the eight-hour day inoperative. His impression of the Russian trade unions was that they were on a far more democratic basis than those in Britain, and that their domination of the Soviet was complete, although they had not the right of actual decision.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Public Secondary Schools Cadet Association, Lieut-General Sir H. S. Jevons, Director-General of the Territorial Army, said that the War Office wished to spend more money on the cadets, but the Treasury insisted that the money voted for military purposes should have a definite military result. Apart from the military aspect of the question, the War Office was quite convinced of the value of the cadet training to the nation.
